

May 6, 2011

Dear Friends,

What a fantastic year we have had as a Congregation, and even as we mark our annual meeting, the year keeps rolling. I know I speak on behalf of all our leaders on every level that we appreciate all who have helped make this a meaningful year. We have been blessed with wonderful elected leadership, wonderful staff and clergy, and fantastic volunteers. As we draw together as a community, we can feel the warmth and the energy that is Baltimore Hebrew Congregation. As you enter our building, or join with BHC beyond our building, I hope you individually feel the power of our history and, even more so, of our current efforts.

BHC celebrated and learned in so many places this year; from Israel, to hikes in the woods, from retreats, to Ellis Island. We showed that our Congregation thrives within our walls and explores beyond the corner of Park Heights and Slade. We have searched for God and combined our voices in the Sanctuary, the Hoffberger Chapel, and the Goodwin Center. We have studied Torah in creative settings from our youngest children across the decades. We cared for each other with hugs and with much needed meals for those who were ill or in mourning.

This Annual Report and Annual Meeting provide just a taste of the vibrancy that can be BHC. In the coming year, we can look forward to fresh ideas, an ever-increasing set of caring volunteers, and surprises. This meeting summarizes the past year; may it also energize our leaders, our volunteers and our entire Congregation for the coming year.

B'shalom,

Rabbi Andrew Busch

A Message from the President

Philip Abraham

It's hard to believe that a year has passed since becoming your president. Looking back, it has been a very rewarding and successful year. Such success is due to our clergy, our staff and you, the volunteers who make so much of what happens at BHC possible. This Annual Report is a brief summary of some of the activities that our Congregation is involved in. Your continued interest in these efforts can help to make BHC even greater.

Please join with me, with our officers, Board and chairpersons to build on our successes to make BHC a true house of prayer, study and community.

Committee and Auxiliary Reports

BLOOD DONOR COMMITTEE

Betty Fink and Carlyn Lipman

BHC sponsors two blood drives annually, one in the spring and one in the fall. In the past year we were able to send 95 pints of blood to the American Red Cross. To make optimal use of each donation, blood is separated into its components: plasma for burn and shock patients, platelets for chemotherapy and leukemia patients and red cells for trauma patients. Thus, one donation can save several lives. Thank you to all donors for your contribution to the community.

CEMETERY COMMITTEE

Richard A. Fishkin

The Cemetery Committee continues to supervise the operation and maintenance of the Congregation's two cemeteries at Berrymans Lane and Belair Road. In FY 2010-2011, services were provided to 128 families at the Berrymans Lane Cemetery and to 16 families at the Belair Road Cemetery. For that same period of time, burial rights for 132 new plots were sold at Berrymans Lane and 7 new plots were sold at Belair Road. Included in these figures are 82 lots sold in the new Division 8 at Berrymans Lane.

Due to several break-ins, security cameras were installed at the Belair Road Cemetery.

We feel an obligation to see that the cemeteries are maintained in a way befitting the members of the Congregation and the community, while at the same time seeing that we operate within our budget. Not only has the Committee been able to accomplish this, but it has been able to provide positive financial returns to the Congregation.

The members of this committee are dedicated to the service and well-being of the Congregation and its cemeteries. We appreciate the incredible support of Sally Palmbaum, David Weis and Jo Ann Windman.

FAMILY CONCERNS COMMITTEE

Carol J. Caplan

Our purpose is to create a warm, caring atmosphere in the congregation and reach out to members in a supportive and helpful manner. It is through this philosophy of congregational in-reach that a powerful and positive message can be sent to the entire congregational family. The synagogue is your spiritual home and the Congregation is your support community.

We continue visits to Sunrise and Arden Court, assisted living facilities, for "Sharing Shabbat" services the first Saturday of each month. A core of dedicated volunteers, both adults and b'nai mitzvah students, do a service put together by some of our members with help from Cantor Sacks. We sponsor "Coffee with the Clergy" at Atrium Village and at least twice a year at North Oaks.

Informative educational programs are held on Thursday afternoons on diverse topics such as "Anger Management," "Happiness is a Serious Problem," "Prescription Drug Abuse" and "Addiction in the Family."

Through Bema Home Connection, those who are homebound, hospitalized or otherwise unable to attend worship services may listen to worship services from each of our worship venues.

"Congregants Helping Congregants" offers transportation to worship services and programs. Bereavement support groups, led by a licensed psychologist and a certified bereavement guide, provide comfort to those in mourning. We held six-week sessions in October and March.

BHC joined the national organization on Disabilities Committed Congregations Campaign. With a donation from the Sonia and Sol C. Berenholtz Fund, hand railings were installed on the sanctuary bema steps. This Fund also purchased a reading magnifier for the Myerberg Library to help enlarge materials for those in need of such services. Books and materials on various subjects have been purchased as gifts from congregants and the committee that have been made available through the Myerberg Library. Jewish Life pamphlets are available for those with health, family and personal issues. Also available is a pamphlet on Access and Accommodation at BHC.

Last year the committee purchased the award-winning documentary DVD "Praying with Lior," which was shown following a Friday worship service as well as in the Religious School as part of a program on disabilities. As this powerful and moving documentary moves to its climax, Lior, who is developmentally disabled, must pass through the gateway to manhood - his bar mitzvah. Appreciation to Brad Cohen for coordinating this program along with Maria Kannen and Susan Abraham.

"Meal Makers" delivers meals to those recovering from illness, celebrating a birth, or mourning a loss. Maria Kannen coordinates this most welcome program. We cannot thank enough all our wonderful volunteers who cook, deliver and provide the meals.

We receive many letters, calls and even contributions in appreciation for our caring. We have many successes, but we want to do more. We want to bring more educational programs and services to our congregation, focusing on all ages, but realizing that one-fifth of the American Jewish Community is over age 65, with the fastest growth component being those over 75, "End of Life" issues and "Taking Care of Mom and Dad" are now important areas. On May 1, we helped sponsor the first annual "Recovery Day at the J" at Jewish Recovery Houses.

None of these programs would be possible without the caring and support of our special volunteers, without whose participation we would not be able to become a kehilat chesed. Special thanks to BHC's Senior Staff, especially our liaison, Rabbi Sachs-Kohen.

HOFFBERGER GALLERY

Marcia Bornfriend and Lauren Loran

The Hoffberger Gallery attracts artists from the Baltimore/Washington area and beyond. Our gallery is very desirable because of our excellent lighting, wall space, and the number of people that come to BHC each month. The Gallery Committee juries artists at least one year in advance, planning for either one person shows or group shows for the months of September through June.

Usually on the first Sunday of every month, we have a wine and cheese reception to meet the artist. Attendance at these events has been between 25 to over a hundred people.

This year, we also held a Saturday evening reception, which drew over 150. The Gallery retains 30% commission on artwork sold.

Besides placing information in the Temple Bulletin and local newspapers, we have also had articles in the Baltimore Jewish Times and the City Paper. The Gallery Committee maintains a Webpage on the BHC Website, the goal being to attract more artists and to increase community awareness of the quality of shows we have on display each month.

At this time, we have juried an excellent number of artists for 2011–2012. We welcome anyone in the BHC family who is interested in promoting and supporting local artists to join our committee in the coming year.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE

Mose Ottenheimer, 2nd

The Insurance Committee is charged with the responsibility of providing for the Congregation the best possible insurance coverage at the lowest possible cost.

We have been able to negotiate a considerable reduction in premiums over the last several years on all lines of insurance including fire, liability and disability. This year the premiums will remain the same as last year. The Committee will continue to monitor the costs and to negotiate the best possible terms for the Congregation's insurance program.

We want to thank our Executive Director, Jo Ann Windman, Controller, David K. Weis and the staff of BHC for their continuing support and cooperation.

MUSIC COMMITTEE

Hilda Perl Goodwin

Thanks to Cantors Robbie Solomon and Ann Sacks, piano accompanist, organist and choir director Jimmy Galdieri, our professional choir, Congregational Choir Kol Rinnah and Youth Choir Kol Ruach, our services at BHC are alive with the sound of music. Special thanks to Cantor Solomon for enhancing our worship with his compositions and special chazzanute chanting, Cantor Sacks for developing trope-literate Congregants through her adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah program and Peabody Conservatory faculty and BHC members violist Maria Lambros and cellist Michael Kannen, for playing at many BHC services and Ralene Jacobson for her excellent piano accompaniment whenever needed. We congratulate Ralene for being selected as "Teacher of the Year" for Baltimore County.

Kol Rinnah sang at Friday night services approximately every three weeks, shifting its base operation to the Goodwin Center. It also participated in the late-night Selichot service, performing once again the haunting Charles Davison's Hush of Midnight as a joint service of three of the Reform congregations and three of the area cantors. Tefilah band, plus help from professional bass and flute players, had an occasional turn at accompanying Erev Shabbat services in the Goodwin Center.

Kol Rinnah, our cantors and Rabbi Busch partnered with First Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church in services honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Choirs from both congregations joined in singing gospel music and Hebrew songs.

David Berenhaus, Jan Brinch and Marjorie Goodman organized a special concert honoring the memory of Debbie Friedman. A packed house enjoyed the concert with Marjie as narrator and Dave, Cantors Solomon and Sacks playing the guitar and singing.

Funded by The Peggy and Yale Gordon Trust, the New Year's musical event, Opera Favorites, was presented to a full house with James Harp as the musical director/accompanist. Another Gordon Trust event, Pianistics, with 3 piano virtuosos, took place in the Dalsheimer Auditorium. Hilda Perl Goodwin was the producer/narrator for both events. On Friday night, June 10, there will be a jazz Erev Shabbat service with professional jazz horn players, drummers, and the BHC choirs.

The sound system in the Dalsheimer Auditorium received an upgrade during this year.

BHC PROGRAMS

Andy Wayne, Program Director

Our synagogue aims to connect with Congregants of all ages through a variety of programs. The 2010-2011 program year was full of exciting opportunities for our community.

New events included a Temple Tailgate party in our parking lot and a special Brotherhood and Sisterhood movie event that included a Skype session with the film's director, who lives in Israel. Also, the new Goodnight Shabbat joined PJ Shabbat as a special event for our young families. The Purim Carnival got an added facelift with many new games and features. And, BHC will hold the 2nd Annual Community-Wide Scoop event for Shavuot on June 8. Last year's event was attended by nearly 250 ice cream fans in just one hour.

BHC's youth and young adult programs also had a successful year. Scores of young adults were added to the roster of Chai Life, our 20s and 30s community. We continue to sow the seeds for strengthening BHC by engaging Chai Life participants through quality programming such as Shabbat dinners, sports teams, happy hours and more. This year will be its 5th year in existence, and we hope to increase our efforts in both outreach and membership. Our youth groups continue to thrive as well. JYGE, our junior youth group, worked hard at having fun in 2010-2011, with events such as a chocolate seder, movie night and pumpkin picking. BHeCTY, our senior youth group, was led by a strong board of teens who created and ran an event every single month of the program year.

A great variety of events and ongoing programs are in the works for the upcoming year as BHC continues to provide superb social, educational, spiritual and social action opportunities to both Congregants and the unaffiliated. All of BHC's program successes are a result of the hard work and partnership of Congregants and staff. I thank everyone involved in this year's efforts and look forward to more great efforts in the future.

SISTERHOOD

Ann Fishkin

Sisterhood, the organization of the women of BHC, had a very good year. Some old programs were newly invigorated, like our Thursday study programs. They were renamed Triple Treat Thursday; the day starts with classroom study, continues with lunch and ends with an afternoon program or trip to a nearby venue, such as the Jewish Museum of Maryland, with docent-led tours. And, after many years, we will have a Donor EVENT, at which we will honor Carol J. Caplan.

A new commitment to Social Action was begun. We have been very successful in collecting cell phones for CHANA. Our Chicks with Sticks program has received many knitted items that have been distributed locally to organizations needing them. Sisterhood women have been reading to elementary school children as part of the Bookworms program. Go to our website, <http://www.bhcong.org/sisterhood/>, to see the programs we support.

We are taking a break from some programs, such as the Pet Event, and will re-evaluate their viability for being held annually. And some new programs were added, like our very successful Community Shred Events, which we are already planning to repeat next year. Then of course we have our wonderful on-going programs and events such as the Holiday Boutique, Book Club, Interfaith Institute, and Shabbaton.

Another success this year, that we are very proud of, is the reorganization of our office. It is newly painted, neat and clean. We are working hard to keep the office this way! Some of the items found during the reorganization have been given to Archives for safe-keeping.

The monies we raise with our fund-raising events and Sisterhood dues enable us to support the Congregation's physical plant, such as the Quiet Room and the ark in the Sanctuary, BHC's Religious School, Day School and Library, its youth programs, and many community programs, as well as WRJ—Women of Reform Judaism—our highly respected international organization.
